- This shall too pass

*Immense thoughts along with a broken heart,
I try to endure everything like as if my life is adequate,
Now I deal with people less no matter what,
having a little hope that this time shall pass.*

*Although, I wander in my new path,
but maybe eventually I'll wonder to its aftermath.
Now I'm not a person that I was,
Somewhat I'm calm or maybe depress,
But rather than alas, I hope this time shall too pass.*

*I wanna explore everything that this universe has,
I wanna enhance my glance,
I wanna be surpassed in every chance.
Even if this is a good moment, this time shall too pass.*

*Be it a day of stress or bless,
To reach my destination,
I'll find a new way to access and to come across.
I'm hoping, this shall too pass.*

*Juhu beach is the heartland for each,
Bandra Worli sea link leads to everyone's eye blink.
Haji-Ali dargah and existing temples are the sign of unity

Getting out from home hungry, and eating along catching the

Everyone here finally learns to carry on journey and to sustain.*

*Oofy and ropy,
